

XPV is pleased to announce the addition of Debra Coy to its Strategic Advisory Board

July 20, 2010

XPV is pleased to announce the appointment of Debra Coy as a strategic advisor for the XPV Water Fund. Debra provides consulting services for investors and companies in the water sector. Joining utility regulatory expert David Svanda, she launched her independent consulting business, Svanda & Coy Consulting, in 2010 after 20 years as a research analyst covering the water industry for Wall Street firms. She most recently worked as Managing Director and Senior Analyst leading coverage of the water sector for Janney Montgomery Scott's Capital Markets group.

Ms. Coy was named a Financial Times/Starmine "Best Brokerage Analyst" in 2008 and 2009 for her U.S. water utilities coverage. She is a frequent speaker at industry events, has appeared on CNBC, PBS's Wall Street Week and other investment broadcasts, and is regularly quoted in financial and industry publications on water sector stocks and issues.

Prior to Janney, Ms. Coy was an equity research analyst with the Stanford Washington Research Group, Schwab Capital Markets, HSBC Securities, and NatWest Securities. Ms. Coy holds an undergraduate degree in English literature and received an M.A. in Journalism from the University of Maryland.
